MOTION CARRIED

Public Hearing- Amended Site Plan of Arbor Housing and Development to develop 60 units of senior apartments located at 1205 Plymouth Avenue, Elmira, New York, tax map #109.08-2-51, zoned Commercial Regional

At Chairperson Peterson's invitation, Brian Grose with Fagan Engineers presented the amended site plans to the Board. The original plan was to have 60 units comprised of traditional apartments and five townhomes. The amended plan has eliminated the five townhomes and will have one building with 60 units. Mr. Grose submitted the new layout with the townhomes removed.

Chairperson Peterson opened the public hearing for comment at 7:30 p.m. and the following comments were received:

Laure Eastwood of Plymouth Avenue asked:

How do we know the senior housing will be only for senior living?

Ira Manhoff of 830 Dutch Hill Road stated:

Noted a difference in project acreage and acreage disturbed in application. Went to 70 houses talking to residents and claimed none of them knew anything about the project. Mr. Manhoff feels information is being hidden from the public about the project. Mr. Manhoff put a FOIL request in for the meeting on August 5, 2025 and claims never received an answer. He also states that there are numerous hazardous sites within 2000 feet of the project site. Mr. Manhoff stated he feels the project space should be turned into a park instead. Concerned about community character and storm water plan.

J. Eastwood of Plymouth Avenue stated:

Concerned about drug issues and the police presence, agreed that it should be turned into a park and is not in favor of the housing project.

Tina Moore of 1173 Sherman Avenue stated:

There was nothing on the Town of Southport website about the meeting and pointed out that the calendar was incorrect with the planning board meeting date. It was listed as September 1st not the 2nd.

Tom Aber of 1155 Sherman Avenue stated:

Owens a property on Plymouth Avenue and is concerned with the increased traffic.

No one else wished to be heard.

There was a brief adjournment for Attorney/client meeting.

Upon return, Jamie Gensel from Fagan Engineers stepped forward wanting to answer some of the residents' questions to help clear things up. Mr. Gensel wanted to address the question of if the housing project would be 55 and older for residents. He said that because it's part of the NYS Homes and Community Renewal (HCR) Program, it is mandatory for residents to be over the age of 55. Another question that was asked was how many employment positions this housing project will create. Danielle from Arbor Housing stated that there will be two full-time employees hired to work at the housing development once construction is complete. No additional comments were received.
